Review article

The study of the brain using PET and SPECT: implications for space and underwater neurology
A.B. Newberg and A. Alavi (USA) 1

Neuromuscular complications in the ICU: the spectrum of critical illness-related conditions causing muscular weakness and weaning failure
E.-F. Hund (Germany) 10

Basic section

Research articles

Neurotrophins increase motoneurons' ability to innervate skeletal muscle fibers in rat spinal cord–human muscle cocultures
S. Braun, B. Croizat, M.-C. Lagrange, J.-M. Warter and P. Poindron (France) 17

Nerve and muscle damage after experimental thrombosis of large artery. Electrophysiology and morphology
J.K. Korthals, T. Maki, M.A. Korthals and L.D. Prockop (USA) 24

Microvessel basement membrane reduplication is not associated with repeated nerve fiber degeneration and regeneration
M.K. Baker, P. Bourque and P.J. Dyck (USA, Canada) 31

NMDA- and endothelin-1-induced increases in blood-brain barrier permeability quantitated with Lucifer yellow
R.D. Miller, N.T. Monsul, J.R. Vender and J.C. Lehmann (USA) 37

Clinical section

Research articles

Some unusual responses of astrocytes to ghost tangles in a long duration case of juvenile Alzheimer's disease: an electron microscopic study
I. Nakano, T. Iwatsubo, N. Otsuka, M. Kamei, K. Matsumura and T. Mannen (Japan) 41

A distinctive type of infantile inflammatory myopathy with abnormal myonuclei
N. Sripathi, G. Karpati and S. Carpenter (Canada, USA) 47

A standard test of heat-pain responses using CASE IV
P.J. Dyck, I.R. Zimmerman, D.M. Johnson, D. Gillen, J.L. Hokanson, J.L. Karnes, G. Gruener and P.C. O'Brien (USA) 54

Pathological findings in a patient with amyotrophic lateral sclerosis and multifocal motor neuropathy with conduction block
B. Veugelers, P. Theys, M. Lammens, J. Van Hees and W. Robberecht (Belgium) 64

Tetrahydrobiopterin double-blind, crossover trial in Machado-Joseph disease
T. Sakai, Y. Antoku, T. Matsuishi and H. Iwashita (Japan) 71

Brain aging in normal Egyptians: Neuropsychological, electrophysiological and cranial tomographic assessment
O. Elwan, A.A.H. Hassan, M.A. Naseer, M. Fahmy, F. Elwan, A.A.A. Kader and M. Mahfouz (Egypt) 73

Cerebrospinal fluid and nerve conduction abnormalities in HIV positive individuals [1]
R.J. Barohn, G.S. Gronseth, A.A. Amato, S.A. McGuire, A.L. McVey, B.R. LeForce and R.B. King (USA) 81

Callosal bleeding in a case of Marchiafava-Bignami disease
M. Kamaki, M. Kawamura, H. Moriya and K. Hirayama (Japan) 86

An autopsy case of Marchiafava-Bignami disease with peculiar chronological CT changes in the corpus callosum: neuroradiopathological correlations
J.-i. Shiota, I. Nakano, M. Kawamura and K. Hirayama (Japan) 90

Synaptophysin expression in the anterior horn of Werdnig-Hoffmann disease
A. Ikemoto, A. Hirano, S. Matsumoto, I. Akiguchi and J. Kimura (USA, Japan) 94

Analysis of CAG trinucleotide expansion associated with Machado–Joseph disease
M. Watanabe, K. Abe, M. Aoki, T. Kameya, J. Kaneko, M. Shoji, M. Ikeda, M. Shizuka, Y. Ikeda, T. Iizuka, S. Hirai and Y. Itoyama (Japan) 101

Clinical characteristics of familial amyotrophic lateral sclerosis with Cu/Zn superoxide dismutase gene mutations
K. Abe, M. Aoki, M. Ikeda, M. Watanabe, S. Hirai and Y. Itoyama (Japan) 108

Increased NADPH-diaphorase reactivity and cytokine expression in dorsal root ganglia in acquired immunodeficiency syndrome
I. Nagano, P. Shapshak, M. Yoshioka, K. Xin, S. Nakamura and W.G. Bradley (USA, Japan) 117

Neurological impairment and recovery in Wilson's disease: evidence from PET and MRI
G. Schlaug, H. Hefter, V. Engelbrecht, T. Kuwert, S. Arnold, G. Stöcklin and R.J. Seitz (Germany) 129

Neuropathological evaluation and apolipoprotein E gene polymorphism analysis in diffuse Lewy body disease
C. Kawanishi, K. Suzuki, T. Odawara, E. Iseki, H. Onishi, T. Miyakawa, Y. Yamada, K. Kosaka, N. Kondo and T. Yamamoto (Japan) 140

Cardiac microembolism: prevalence and clinical outcome
B.M. Eicke, V. Barth, B. Kukowski, G. Werner and W. Paulus (Germany) 143

Turns-amplitude analysis assessment of myopathies in HIV-infected patients
J.-P. Lefaucheur, J. Verroust and R.K. Gherardi (France) 148

Increased neuropeptide Y-like immunoreactivity in cerebrospinal fluid and plasma of human immunodeficiency virus-infected patients: relationship to HIV encephalopathy
R. Malessa, M. Heimbach, N.H. Brockmeyer, U. Hengge, W. Rascher and M.C. Michel (Germany) 154

The clinical significance of a single abnormal immunoglobulin band in cerebrospinal fluid electrophoresis
T. Ben-Hur, O. Abramsky and Y. River (Israel) 159

Plasma catechols and monoamine oxidase metabolites in untreated Parkinson's and Alzheimer's diseases
J.E. Ahlskog, R.J. Uitti, G.M. Tyce, J.F. O'Brien, R.C. Petersen and E. Kokmen (USA) 162

Differences in the reduced ^{18}F-Dopa uptakes of the caudate and the putamen in Parkinson's disease: correlations with the three main symptoms
M. Otsuka, Y. Ichiya, Y. Kuwabara, S. Hosokawa, M. Sasaki, T. Yoshida, T. Fukumura, K. Masuda and M. Kato (Japan) 169

A double blind, placebo controlled, crossover trial of D-ribose in McArdle's disease
I.C. Steele, V.H. Patterson and D.P. Nicholls (UK) 174

Short reports

Recurrent myoglobinuria due to carnitine palmitoyltransferase II deficiency: expression of the molecular phenotype in cultured muscle cells
J. Villard, A. Fischer, G. Mandon, J.M. Collombet, F. Taroni and B. Mousson (Switzerland, France, Italy) 178

Carpal tunnel syndrome in pregnancy: indications for early surgery
S. Stahl, Z. Blumenfeld and D. Yarnitsky (Israel) 182

Multiple sclerosis with hydromyelia demonstrated at autopsy
B.K. Kleinschmidt-DeMasters and J. Newell (USA) 185

Cerebellar ataxia in Cogan syndrome
M.-U. Manto and J. Jacquy (Belgium) 189

Letters to the Editor

Muscle glycogen of steroid myopathy patients
L.H. Schliselfeld and M.J. Danon (USA) 192

Muscle glycogen of steroid myopathy patients Reply to the letter by L. H Schlieselfeld and M.J. Danon
J. Fernández-Solà, R. Cussó and J.-M. Grau (Spain) 194
